

Betsy Krieger

Director of Program Compliance

Betsy Krieger joined OHFA in September 2005 and is currently the Director of Program Compliance. Prior to joining OHFA, she was the Enforcement Manager for the Department of Commerce, responsible for directing investigations of Ohio's real estate agents and brokerages. Krieger has more than 29 years of experience in regulatory compliance and previously held positions with CoreComm, a local telecommunications company, where she directed the company's compliance to state and federal utility regulations, the Ohio Consumers' Counsel, and the Ohio Attorney General's Office, Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation. Krieger holds a Bachelor of Arts in Criminology and Political Science, a Master's degree in Public Policy and Management from The Ohio State University, and SCHM, AHM and S.T.A.R (Spectrum Training Award Recipient) designations. She serves on the Midwest Affordable Housing Management Association (MAHMA) Board of Trustees and a Columbus suburban zoning and planning committee after serving five years as a Clintonville Area Commissioner.
