

Sean W. Thomas

Executive Director

Sean W. Thomas began his career with OHFA in 1993 and primarily worked in the Office of Planning, Preservation and Development where he helped administer more than $4 billion in federal housing tax credits and $700 million in loans and grants. He also led the implementation of $240 million in funds provided through the American Recovery & Reinvestment Act and Neighborhood Stabilization Program. In 2013, Mr. Thomas was named Chief of Staff and is responsible for assisting the Executive Director in overseeing all the Agency's programs and operations. He received a Bachelor of Arts in economics and political science from the University of Rochester and certification from the National Development Council in Multifamily Housing Development Finance. In 2010 the Ohio Housing Council awarded Mr. Thomas the Affordable Housing Industry Champion award. He also is a member of the Editorial Advisory Board for the Affordable Housing Finance Magazine. In February, 2017, the OHFA Board unanimously approved the nomination of Mr. Thomas to become the Agency's Executive Director.
