

William Sanderson

VP, Production and Land, Knez Homes, Inc.

William Sanderson has been involved in the acquisition, entitlement, development and building of communities for over 30 years in multiple states and the District of Columbia. He was a Joint Venture Building Partner of Forest City Land Group for 13 years and Vice President of Joint Ventures of FCLG for 6 years. He is considered an expert on sustainable land planning and development and has made significant contributions to the 2012 and 2018 NAHB National Green Building Standard as a member of the Consensus Committee and as Task Group Chair for Chapters 4 and 5 (Land and Lot Development). Sanderson is a frequent presenter at the International Builders Show and participates in various real estate and housing strategy panel discussions and conferences. He provided consulting services to the UESPA on the creation of Sustainable Practices Guidelines for Local and Elected Officials. He also served as a judge for the Professional Builder Magazine's Best in American Living Awards in 2010 and 2016 and was instrumental in establishing the Ohio Home Builders Association Best of Ohio Homes Awards program in 2016. He currently resides in Lakewood, Ohio, is married and has two grown children.

Sanderson received a bachelor's degree in economics from Baldwin Wallace College and has completed courses towards an MBA at Ohio University.